

GRAND URBAN RULES

Alex Lehnerer

010

0	The City of Averuni and its Code	9
§1	General Declarations, Motive	13
§2	Superordinate Land Use Rules	16
§3	District-related Land Use Rules	21
§4	Streetscape Rules	25
§5	Neighborhood Rules	30
§6	Plot/Block Rules	35
§7	Building Rules	40
1	Rules as Tools—A Token of Affection	57
2	The Tightrope Walk of Exercising Control over Private Property	71
3	Power is Nothing Without Control	87
3.1	The Difficult Act of Setting Thresholds	88
3.2	Attempts and Realizations of Control	99
4	Codified Aesthetics	109
4.1	Control and (Visual) Order	111
4.2	Downtown's Will to Form	123
5	Connected Isolation—Neighborhood	145
5.1	Prologue: Loss of Autonomy—A Neighborhood Paradigm	146
5.2	Immaterial Intruder—The Right to Light	148
5.3	How Big Is your Neighborhood	160
6	Codes, Conventions and Maxims: Official and Informal Regimes, Rules of Place in 1960s New York	165
7	Within or Without	189
7.1	Automatic Inclusion: Externalities	190
7.2	Artificial Conclusion: Plans and Special Districts	199
8	Difference and Consistency	215
9	Designed Variation	235
10	Synthesis—A Designed Conclusion	243
	Remote Control	263
	Kees Christiaanse
	The Climatic Aspect of Architecture	267
	Ludger Hovestadt	