

OECD Urban Studies

The Circular Economy in Cities and Regions

SYNTHESIS REPORT

Table of contents

Preface	3
Foreword	4
Acknowledgements	5
Abbreviations and acronyms	11
Executive summary	13
1 Towards a circular economy: Key drivers	15
Introduction	16
Defining the circular economy	17
Key drivers for the circular economy transition	21
References	33
Notes	38
Annex 1.A. Key data from surveyed cities and regions	39
2 Cities and regions going circular: Circular economy vision, policies and tools	43
The circular economy in existing policies and strategies	44
A long-term vision for the circular economy	44
Economy and finance	57
Regulation	60
Capacity building	64
Business models	65
Digitalisation	66
Pilots and experimentation	68
Data and information	69
Stakeholder engagement	70
References	72
Notes	74
Annex 2.A. Circular economy initiatives across levels of government	75
3 The 3Ps framework: People, policies and places	77
The 3Ps framework: People, polices and places	78
People and firms	78
Policies: Identifying sectors holding potential for the circular economy	85
Places: Circular economy initiatives at various scales	97
References	99

4 Governance gaps	105
Funding gaps	107
Regulatory gaps	108
Policy gaps	109
Awareness gaps	110
Capacity gaps	111
References	111
Notes	112
5 Measuring the circular economy in cities and regions	113
Why measure the circular economy?	114
What to measure	115
At which scale	123
Main challenges of the existing measurement frameworks	130
Selected indicators for setting and implementing a circular economy strategy	131
References	133
Notes	135
Annex 5.A. List of monitoring frameworks included in the OECD Inventory of Circular Economy Indicators	136
6 Getting the governance of the circular economy right: Checklist for Action and Scoreboard	137
Promoting, facilitating and enabling the circular economy	138
Promoters	143
Facilitators	146
Enablers	149
The role of national governments in supporting the transition to a circular economy	153
The OECD Scoreboard on the Governance of the Circular Economy in Cities and Regions	154
References	171
Annex A. Respondents of the OECD (2020) Survey on the Circular Economy in Cities and Regions	173