

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction	5
2. Background	7
3. Current common practice in European Cities	11
3.1 Excursus: Lifecycle of a Household - how much parking is needed?.....	14
3.2 Excursus: Multiple use of shared parking spaces.....	14
4. Importance of regulation as a steering instrument for urban and transportation planning	16
5. Steering and design via standards in practice	18
5.1 London: Maximum Standards instead of minimum standards.....	19
5.2 Freiburg: Deviation from standards to develop a car-free neighbourhood in Vauban.....	20
5.3 Zurich: Restrictive standards for new developments	21
5.4 City of Mainz: Lower minimum requirements for car parking due to public transport bonus	23
5.5 Graz: Mobility contracts	23
5.6 Bulgaria: Minimum standards for bicycle parking	24
6. Examples for new developments: Standards to support liveable neighbourhoods ...	27
6.1 Darmstadt: Lincoln	27
6.2 Freiburg: Dietenbach	28
6.3 Zurich: Sihlbogen	29
7. How to deal with standards of the past?	31
7.1 Nottingham: Workplace Parking Levy.....	32
7.2 Zurich: 'Historic compromise' to freeze the number of parking spaces.....	32
7.3 Umeå: Green Parking Pay off and other developments.....	34
8. Improved Parking standards as part of the parking management strategy and its integration in SUMP - Key findings and outlook.....	37
9. List of References	39